Task 3: Prepare Your Classroom Management Plan 35
Identify the Level of Support You and Your Students Need 38
Putting Your Needs and Students' Needs Together: What Level of Support Is Needed? 41
Conclusion 43

SECTION TWO: PREPARING YOUR CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT PLAN 45

Chapter 2 Structure for Success (Behavioral Decisions) 47
Task 1: Develop and Display Guidelines for Success 48
Task 2: Develop and Display Classroom Rules 52
Decide Who Will Have Input into the Rules 53
Develop Your Rules 54
Task 3: Design a Positive Physical Space 56
Arrange Desks and Work Spaces to Optimize Instructional Tasks 57
Ensure Physical and Visual Access to All Parts of the Room 62
Minimize Disruptions Caused by High-Traffic Areas 62
Devote Bulletin Board or Display Space to Student Work 63
Consider Designating an Area of Your Classroom as a Cool-Down or Problem-Solving Space 63
Determine Whether and How to Assign Seats 63
Task 4: Select an Attention Signal 67
Task 5: Design Effective Beginning and Ending Routines 70
Entering Class 71
Opening Activities 72
Protocols for Responding to Students Not Prepared with Materials 76
Protocol for Students Returning after an Absence 77
Procedures for End of Class Period 79
Dismissal 80

Task 6: Design Procedures for Managing Common Transitions 81

Why Should I Have to Teach Expectations? Students Should Just Know How to Behave in the Classroom 81

Identify Common Transitions That Occur in Your Classroom 83

Consider Level of Support When Designing Expectations for Transitions 84

Clarify Expectations for Voice Levels 85

Consider Time to Transition 86

Complete Planning Forms to Define Your Behavioral Expectations for Common Transitions 86

Task 7: Prepare for Common Areas and Special Circumstances 90

Know Your School's Expectations for Common Areas 90

Know Your School's Emergency Procedures 90

Prepare Expectations for Upcoming Assemblies 91

Prepare a Plan for Working with Substitutes 91

Task 8: Establish and Maintain Productive Family Contacts 93

Initial Contact 95

Ongoing Contact 98

Conclusion 101

Chapter 3 Structure for Success (Instructional Decisions) 102

Task 1: Establish an Efficient Daily Schedule 103

Task 2: Clarify Expectations for the Common Instructional Activities That Occur in Your Classroom 107

Identify Common Instructional Activities That Occur in Your Classroom 107

Develop Clear Behavioral Expectations for Each Major Instructional Activity 108

Task 3: Design Procedures for Managing Teacher-Directed Instruction 117

Best Practices for Facilitating Teacher-Directed Activities 120

Task 4: Design Procedures for Managing Independent Work Periods 125

Best Practices for Facilitating Independent Work Periods 128

Task 5: Design Procedures for Managing Partner and Cooperative Group Work 131

Best Practices for Facilitating Partner and Cooperative Work Periods 132

Task 6: Design Procedures for Managing Student Assignments 138

Assigning Classwork and Homework 139

Collecting Completed Work 140

Returning Graded Work to Students 142

Maintaining Records and Keeping Students Informed of Their Current Grade Status 143

Procedures to Address Late or Missing Assignments 144

Task 7: Design Procedures for Managing Student Technology Use 146

Define Expectations for Use of Shared Devices in Class 147

Define Expectations for Use of Personal Devices in Class 151

Task 8: Develop Long-Range Classroom Goals 154

Task 9: Understand Considerations for Developing Effective Grading Practices 156

Examine the Existing Regularities of Your Grading System 157

Consider the Connection between Grades and Motivation 158

Task 10: Develop a Grading System That Creates a Relationship between Student Effort, Growth, and Success 163

Communicate Important Course Objectives and Align Evaluation with These Objectives 164

Consider Whether to Include a Behavioral Grading Component 168

Ensure That Students Receive Regular Feedback on Behavior, Academic Performance, and Current Grades 178

Conclusion 182

Chapter 4 Teach Students to Meet Expectations 183

Task 1: Teach Your Guidelines for Success and Classroom Rules 184

Incorporate Guidelines for Success 184

Teach Classroom Rules 185

Task 2: Prepare Visuals and Lessons to Communicate Your Expectations 186

Communicate Your Expectations 187

Using the CHAMPS or ACHIEVE Acronym 188

Visual Displays of CHAMPS or ACHIEVE Information 188

Prepare Lessons to Teach CHAMPS or ACHIEVE Expectations 191

Task 3: Teach Behavioral and Social-Emotional Skills 195

Task 4: Clarify Behavioral Expectations for Common Areas and Special Circumstances 200

Teaching Common Area Expectations 200

Teaching Expectations for School Emergency Situations 201

Teaching Expectations to New Students 202

Teaching Expectations for Unique Events 204

Task 5: Clarify Behavioral Expectations with Parents and Guardians 206

Determine the Best Method of Communication 208

Seek Family Input on Expectations and Social-Emotional Skills 208

Conclusion 209

Chapter 5 Observe: Use Data to Monitor and Adjust Your Management Plan 210

Task 1: Scan All Sections of the Classroom Continuously; Circulate When Possible 210

Visual Scanning 211

Auditory Scanning 212

Circulating 212

Task 2: Understand Why and How to Use Data in Your Classroom 213

Understand the Purpose of Data Collection 214

Overcoming Common Barriers to Collecting Data 215

Understand Different Types of Data 216

Use Your Classroom Goals to Guide Data Collection 219

Use Hallmarks of Effective Classrooms to Guide Data Collection 220

Task 3: Use Data Snapshots to Monitor and Adjust Your Classroom Management Plan 224

Schedule When to Collect Data Snapshots in Your Calendar 225

Recommended Data Snapshot Calendar: 18-Week Semester 225

Mine Your Data 226

Conclusion 227

Chapter 6 Interact Positively (Build Positive Relationships with Students and Provide Positive Feedback) 228

Task 1: Strive to Provide a High Ratio of Positive Interactions 229

Understand the Difference between Positive and Corrective Interactions 230

Avoid the Criticism Trap 231

Level of Support and Ratio of Positive to Corrective Interactions 234

Task 2: Build Positive Relationships with Students with Noncontingent Attention 234

Level of Support and Noncontingent Attention 241

Task 3: Provide Positive Feedback with Contingent Attention 242

Feedback Should Be Accurate 242

Feedback Should Be Specific and Descriptive 242

Feedback Should Be Contingent 244

Feedback Should Be Age Appropriate and Nonembarrassing 245

Feedback Should Be Given Immediately 246

Feedback Should Fit Your Style 246

When Students Respond Negatively to Positive Feedback 246

Level of Support and Positive Feedback 248

Task 4: Provide Intermittent Celebrations 250

Level of Support and Intermittent Celebrations of Success 251

Task 5: Maintain a Positive Ratio of Interactions with Parents/Guardians 253

Ways to Provide Positive Feedback to Parents 253

Task 6: Maintain Positive Communication with Staff Colleagues 255

Engage in Noncontingent Positive Interactions with Staff Colleagues 255

Avoid Exclusive Interactions with Colleagues 256

Welcome New Staff Members 257

Adopt a Collaborative, Problem-Solving Approach with Colleagues 257

Evaluate the Language You Use about Students and Families 258

Conclusion 259

Chapter 7 Interact Positively (Motivational Strategies and Systems) 260

Task 1: Understand Student Motivation 261

Most Repeated Behavior Is Motivated 261

Foster Motivation with a Mix of Intrinsic and Extrinsic Factors 262

Consider Both Expectancy and Value 263

Task 2: Use Non-Reward-Based Strategies to Increase Motivation and Responsible Behavior 265

Stimulate Student Interest 266

Use Goal-Setting Strategies 266

Implement a Classwide Goal-Setting System 268

Help Students Engage in One or More Long-Range Goal-Setting Activities 271

Task 3: Employ One or More Classwide Reward Systems to Increase Motivation and Responsible Student Behavior 272

Step 1: Identify Problems, Goals, and Level of Support Needed 278

Step 2: Select a Classwide System and Prepare to Implement It 279

Step 3: Determine How to Maintain, Modify, and Fade a Classwide System 283

Menu of Classwide Systems 286

Reward-Based Systems Appropriate for Classes Needing High Support 287

Reward-Based Systems Appropriate for Medium-Support Classes 290

Conclusion 293

Chapter 8 Correct Misbehavior Fluently 294

Task 1: Maintain Positive Expectations 297

Task 2: Provide Effective, Fluent Corrective Feedback 300

Plan to Implement the Correction Consistently 301

Plan to Implement the Correction Calmly 303

Plan to Interact with the Student Briefly at the Time of the Misbehavior 305

Plan to Deliver Corrective Feedback in a Private Way as Much as Possible 306

Give Positive Feedback When Behavior Improves 306

Task 3: Develop a Menu of Corrective Consequences 307

Proximity 309

Nonverbal Correction 309

Provide a Group Redirect 309

Redirect by Asking a Question or Providing an Offer of Help 310

Planned Discussion 311

Count and Chart 312

Planned Ignoring 312

Loss of Point 313

Time Owed 313

Timeout 314

Restitution 316

Positive Practice 316

Behavior Improvement Form 316

Verify That Students Understand Expected Behaviors 362

Task 4: Begin CHAMPS Implementation Mid-Year 365

Begin at the Start of a New Term or Semester 365

Begin in the Middle of a Term or Semester 366

Conclusion 366

Chapter 10 Maintain a Cycle of Continuous Improvement 367

Task 1: Use Data to Monitor and Adjust Your Management Plan 368

Apply the Improvement Cycle 369

DSC Tools for Data Collection 376

Tool 1: CHAMPS or ACHIEVE versus Daily Reality Rating Scale 376

Tool 2: Ratio of Interactions Monitoring Forms 380

Tool 3: Misbehavior Recording Sheet 384
Tool 4: Grade Book Analysis Worksheet 386
Tool 5: On-Task Behavior Observation Sheet 389
Tool 6: Opportunities to Respond Observation Sheet 392
Tool 7: Family/Student Satisfaction Survey 394
Task 2: Maintain Awareness of Professionalism and Self-Care 396
Stress Reduction and Self-Care Techniques 404
Task 3: Engage in Ongoing Learning, Reflection, and Professional Development 407
Attend Initial In-Service Training Opportunities at the Building or District Level 407
Self-Assess Your Knowledge and Practice 407
Engage with Colleagues in Ongoing Activities for Growth 408
Conclusion 411

SECTION FOUR: IMPLEMENTING DSC IN VIRTUAL LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS 413

Chapter 11 DSC in the Virtual Setting 414
How to Use This Chapter 415
Virtual Learning and Chapter 1: Develop a Clear Vision for Your Class and Your Classroom Management Approach 416
Virtual Learning and Chapter 2: Structure for Success (Behavioral Decisions) 420
Virtual Learning and Chapter 3: Structure for Success (Instructional Decisions) 446
