
Table of Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
Part I: Who Are Gifted Learners With Special Needs?	9
Defining Special Populations of Gifted Students	11
Case Studies of Successful Students From Special Populations	15
■ Max	17
Laura	19
Ryan	21
Andrea	23
Mitch	25
Carla	29
Barry	32
Ralph	34
Rachel	37
■ Charles	39
Commonalities Across the Profiles	41
Talent Trajectories of Special Populations	45
Issues and Problems for Special Populations in Schools and Gifted Programs	49
Conclusion	51

Part II: What Interventions Work With Special Populations?	53
School-Based Interventions	55
■ Acceleration in a Strength Area	57
Personal Relationships With Teachers and Other Personnel	60
Mentorships and Internships.	62
■ Career Exploration	65
Classroom-Based Interventions.	69
■ Problem-Based Learning.	72
The Literature Web	78
Higher Level Questioning/Thinking	84
Creative Expression	90
■ The Arts as a Cognitive Tool for Learning	93
Affective Curriculum Needs.	99
Conclusion	111
Part III: Support Structures for Intervention Services . . .	113
Developing Support Structures for Special Populations . . .	115
Characteristics and Practices of Successful Teachers	121
Structures for Special Populations in Classrooms and Schools	127
Parental Roles and Responsibilities.	133
Implications for Gifted Education, ELL Programs, and Special Education	137

Conclusion	141
Final Thoughts.	143
Resources	145
References.	149
Appendix A: Literature Web.	159
Appendix B: Independent Learning Contract.	161
Appendix C: Quarterly Survey With Responses.	165
About the Authors.	169