

More pronouns

Reminder: a noun is a word for a thing, person, place or idea.
For example: book, table, Fred, Meg, Australia, Perth, sadness, joy...

Rule: pronouns can take the place of nouns, especially names.

USING NOUNS	USING PRONOUNS
Dilan and I love soccer.	We love it .
Frederick is happy to see Karol .	He is happy to see her .
Romany wants to visit Taylor and Zac .	She wants to visit them .
The table belongs to Jem and me .	It belongs to us .

Rewrite these sentences using pronouns in place of the words in bold.

Trust is important.

Sally and I went to the pool.

Their brother is friends with Billy and me.

Tim and I love all of the kittens.

Fay is happy to see Fay's friends.

Habib and Fatima were looking for Oliver.