

My name is

“One of a Kind.”

People might think that all “ones” are alike, but there isn’t another “one” out there just like me.

I LOVE to eat banana popsicles upside down while standing on my head.

I'm made up of many different colors.

I can ride a unicycle and play the accordion at the same time.

My feet are so big that I only wear shoes when I absolutely have to.

Oh, and when I eat pizza,
I always eat the crust first!

Who does that?

*I really like being me, but being a one isn't always easy.
Sometimes the other ones aren't very nice, and they*

TEASE me!
