

Forcing Choices #6

Directions

Read through each set of three choices. Then, rank them from one to three with one being the choice that is most true for you and three being the least true for you.

1. If I were hiking and got lost, I would most likely
 - _____ stay put and wait for help
 - _____ try to find my way back
 - _____ panic and faint
2. When I am out with a group, I like to
 - _____ dance
 - _____ bowl
 - _____ see a movie
3. If I had extra money, I would
 - _____ put it in the bank
 - _____ spend it
 - _____ share it with friends
4. The best U.S. President was
 - _____ John Kennedy
 - _____ Franklin Roosevelt
 - _____ Ronald Reagan
5. A good time for a fourteen-year-old's curfew is
 - _____ 10:00 p.m.
 - _____ midnight
 - _____ 2:00 a.m.
6. If a stray cat came around my house, I would
 - _____ ignore him
 - _____ feed him
 - _____ take him to the vet
7. The best source of power is
 - _____ electricity
 - _____ nuclear
 - _____ solar (sun)
8. The most fun age for a person is
 - _____ 16
 - _____ 35
 - _____ 60
9. The most fun sport to watch on TV is
 - _____ tennis
 - _____ swimming
 - _____ golf
10. A good name for a dog would be
 - _____ Elizabeth
 - _____ Mr. Pomo
 - _____ Pepper

Labeling All Sorts #6

Directions

Sort these words into four lists. The words in each list must have something in common. Give each list a heading that describes the words in the list. Although there are some obvious possibilities, there are no right or wrong answers.

balloon	volleyball	washing machine	inner tube
beach ball	filing cabinet	door knobs	zippers sidewalk	foundation	buildings	water fountains barnyard	car	floating mattress	staples water heater	desks	houses	roads
steps	football	scuba diving tank	necklaces picnic tables	barn floor	door	chairs
scissors	driveways	hinges	book shelves
gate	curbs	bubble gum bubble	car pit tables	tire	basketball	picture frames
