

Zak listened for the rustle again. He was tense. He glanced about him. Was that a glimpse of a shadow? He was certain it was. The moon ascended into the purple sky. He smelled the scent of dog. It was Cerberus!

Zak _ _ _ _ _ for the
 _ _ _ _ _ . He
 _ _ _ _ _ . He
 _ _ _ _ _
 him. _ _ _ _ _ a
 _ _ _ _ _ of a _ _ _ _ _ ?
 He was _ _ _ _ _ it _ _ _ _ .
 The _ _ _ _ _
 into the _ _ _ _ _ . He _ _ _ _ _ the _ _ _ _ _ of _ _ _ _ _ . It was _ _ _ _ _ !

Book 6: Is it true?

How many untruths can you spot in the text?

When Zak and Mim walked into the canyon, they saw a symphony of blue and green coloured sandstone. Then they saw a hut. The atmosphere was magical. Zak tried to decipher some carvings on the wall. Suddenly, they saw a Sphinx. They didn't know if it was a phantom or if it was real. The Sphinx had a rough voice. It would not let them pass unless they could answer a tough riddle. When Mim solved the riddle, it demanded that Zak hand over the talisman as a trophy. When Zak said "NO!", the canyon walls began to crush them. Zak shape shifted into an elephant and they ran out as fast as they could.

How many untruths did you find?

Book 8: Reading and sorting words with the suffix 'shun' 1b

tion

sion

ssion

tian

cian

action

mansion

mission

Alsatian

politician

nation

compassion

session

passion

pension

ration

impression

station

reaction

tension

admission

obsession

motion

discussion

permission

aggression

mention

fraction

Egyptian

extension

addition

revulsion

electrician

technician

inspection

attention

profession