Instructor's Worksheet

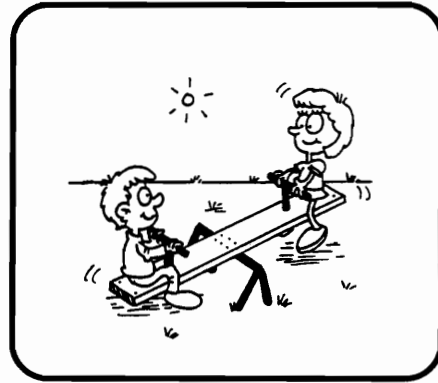

Directions: Before beginning, each student should be given a copy of the student worksheet that corresponds to this instructor's worksheet. Addressing one student at a time, the instructor reads a set of A & B sentence pairs. One sentence is correct. The other has a grammatical error. The student listens and then repeats the correct sentence. Students are to take turns answering. All interaction is oral since the purpose of the activity is to listen, recognize and repeat correct grammar.
