

My teacher wants everyone in our class to "work as a team."

She says that TEAM stands for

Together

Everyone

Achieves

More!

TOGETHER

EVERYONE

MORE

Actually, I think it stands for

Together

Everybody

Acts

MEAN!

A few days ago, she broke us up into teams of four and assigned each group a project. My team's project was to do research on mummies, make a poster, and give a presentation to our class.

I got stuck with Bossy Bernice,
who thinks she knows everything,
Frankie the new kid, who still scribbles, and Norma.
She picks her nose ... and then she eats it!

We made a plan to use toilet paper
to wrap one of us up like a mummy.
Everyone wanted to be the mummy ... even me.

Bernice yelled at us because nobody would do what she said.

Frankie cried when
we wouldn't let him make the poster.

And Norma picked her nose the whole time
and then she called
the rest of us names.
