Remind the student to describe the story setting and characters when telling the story. Write down the student's story on the reproducible full-page picture pages on pages 90-100.

Picture A

Jack and Jill were walking through the village when they saw something very unusual. There was a ladder leading to a castle in the sky. The castle was very large. "Let's climb up this ladder and visit the castle," said Jack.

Picture B

When Jack and Jill arrived at the top of the ladder, they walked into the castle. Suddenly they saw a giant. The giant was holding a large club over his shoulder. "I think that people are hiding in my house. If anyone is here, I will get very, very angry," said the giant.

Picture C

Jack and Jill jumped into a large bowl of fruit. "He won't find us here," thought Jack. "We'll stay here until the giant goes to sleep."

Picture D

Finally, the giant went to bed and started to snore. The snoring caused the castle to shake.
