

Treasure Trove Acting on Emotions

You took a candy bar from the local convenience store. You know it is wrong to steal. You are feeling guilty.

What actions can you take since you are feeling guilty?

(From, go to the store and return it/pay for it, hold your head down, talk to friend/parent about the situation.)

Treasure Trove
Being a
Good Friend

You buy a small bag of candy from the concession stand. Your friend doesn't have any money.

How could you be a good friend?
(think: your friend!)

Treasure Trove Gestures & Facial Expressions

Without using words, show me with your own body and face the following expression:

*Could you please speak up?
(hand cupped over ear, leaning towards speaker, expectant facial expression)*

Treasure Trove
HOW DO
YOU FEEL?

Jody is handing out invitations to her birthday party. She doesn't give you one.

How do you feel?
What could change the way you feel?

Treasure Trove Social Situations

Jason calls you on the phone and invites you to come over to his house. You don't feel like going over.

What do you do?

(probably tell him that you can't come over today)
