

Some say Bunny Man smashes car windows with an ax.

The first event happened on October 19, 1970. Bob Bennett was a U.S. Air Force Academy cadet. Cadets are students. Bennett was visiting family. He was near Clifton. He went to a football game. He took his girlfriend. They left the game. They parked by the bridge.

Bennett saw a man. The man wore a white suit. He wore long bunny ears. He smashed the front window. He yelled, "You're on private property." Bennett drove away. Later he found an ax on the car floor. He told the cops.

REAL-WORLD CONNECTION

A big white rabbit lives in Barnes. Barnes is in South West London. The rabbit is over 6 feet (2 meters) tall. He wears a colorful waistcoat. He wears a colorful scarf. He sits by the Thames River. He dances around. He waves at cars. He waves a heart. The heart is cut out from paper. It has glitter. He does this on the first day of each month. He started doing this in November 2015. He wants to delight people. He wants to take people's minds off bad news. But some people think he's creepy. The rabbit is really Spike McLarrity. McLarrity is a performance artist.
