

Rest in Peace

Amelia Earhart was born in 1897. She was a famous aviator. Aviators fly planes. Earhart flew across the Atlantic Ocean. She did this by herself. She was the first woman to do this. In 1937, she tried to fly around the world. She disappeared over the Pacific Ocean. Nobody knows what happened to her. Some people believe she died in a plane crash. Some believe she survived an emergency landing. They believe she lived on a deserted island. They believe she lived for several weeks. They believe she died on the island. A human skeleton was found on the island. Scientists studied it. They think it's a match for Earhart. Her death is a mystery.

People were interested in her survival story. Blackjack got a lot of attention. She didn't like the attention. But Stefansson and Noice did. They made money off her story. Blackjack didn't get any money for her story. She got money for the expedition. She got some money for her furs. She used that money to help Bennett.

Some people blamed her for Knight's death. Blackjack didn't like that. This made her sad. Knight's parents met her. They supported Blackjack. They said she did all she could. But people still talked.

There were many newspaper stories about Blackjack.
