

Callahan got married. He was married for 6 years. Then things changed. Their marriage ended. Callahan became sad. He needed to do something to make himself happy. He decided to make his dream come true.

He wanted to sail the Napoleon Solo. He wanted to sail alone. He wanted to sail across the Atlantic Ocean. He wanted to be like Slocum and Manry.

He was 29 years old. He set sail in 1981. He left Newport, Rhode Island. He sailed to Bermuda. He continued on to England. His trip across the Atlantic went smoothly. Smooth means without any problems.

◀ Callahan was inspired by his childhood heroes.